"Home of the AuSable River"

On the chilly Monday morning of October 30, school children from Calvary Baptist Academy gave the playground equipment a workout at the recently opened Grayling Township Park. The park is located on North Down River Road, across from the Grayling Fish Hatchery. Grayling Township Supervisor Terry Wright said work is finished for the season, but hopes to receive grant monies to add a pavilion, playscape, paved parking, and a bridge over the AuSable River.

Counties, colleges join forces for Renaissance Zone

by Cheryll Ruley Staff Writer

Crawford County has joined four others, plus four colleges, in a joint application to create a large Renaissance Zone area in northern and mid-Michigan.

The Crawford County Board of Commissioners unanimously agreed at their October regular meeting to sign an application allowing Grayling Township to establish a Subzone in a Renaissance Zone that includes areas of Mecosta, Arenac, Gladwin and Ogemaw Counties.

An earlier attempt by Grayling Township and the County to establish a Renaissance Zone through the Michigan Renaissance Zone program failed, with the state sending economic development project monies elsewhere in Michigan, including Traverse City.

The state established the Michigan Renaissance Zone program to allow communities and counties to apply for state and local tax exemptions for specific parcels of property, including exemptions from the state's Single Business Tax and local real and personal property taxes on operating millage. Local schools will not lose any revenue from a Renaissance Zone designa-

In return for limited tax-free business sites, counties and communities in the Zone increase tremendously the prospects of economic and new job development for their areas. If approved by December 31. 2001, the property tax exemptions within the Subzone in Crawford County, specifically areas within the 1-75 corridor in Grayling Township north of Four Mile Road (Industrial Park). will become effective January 1, 2002 and last 15 years to December Approximately 1,760 acres of land owned by the Michigan Department of Natural Resources would be made available for sale to business-

GRA asks Crawford voters for maintenance money

by Cheryll Rulev

Staff Writer

After passing a 20-year operating millage by a narrow margin in the August Primary, the Grayling Recreational Authority (GRA) will ask the voters of Crawford County to reconsider a five-year, .25 mill maintenance and equipment proposal on November 7.

GRA manages and operates the Hanson Hills Recreation Area which hosts a variety of sports activities for the residents of Crawford County and others. Over the past year, GRA has hosted activities beyond the Hanson Hills grounds in local township parks. The latest GRA proposal is worded slightly different from the one presented to the voters in August. That proposal used the word "improvement," this one focuses on obtaining a maintenance fund to replace roofs, repair the driveway and parking lot as well as equipment upkeep and replacement. In its first year, the millage would raise an estimated $96,500.

If the proposal passes, local property owners will pay 25 cents for every $1,000 of their property's taxable value for the next five years, from 2001 through 2005. Owners of property with a taxable value of $50,000 would pay $12.50 annually, or just a little over a dollar extra each month for five years.

Voters to decide two state ballot issues

On November 7, voters in the state of Michigan will decide two ballot proposals, one instituting school tuition vouchers and one to create a Super Majority or a 2/3 vote on certain bills voted on by state leg-

Included in this article is the official ballot language of each proposal, arguments for and against each proposal, and a list of supporters and opponents for each proposal.

The staff of the Crawford County Avalanche hopes this information will aid voters in their decisions next Tuesday.

Proposal 00-1

A proposal to amend the Constitution to permit State to provide indirect support to students attending nonpublic pre-elementary, elementary, and secondary schools; allow the use of tuition vouchers in certain school districts; and require enactment of teacher testing laws. The proposed constitutional amendment would:

- 1. Eliminate ban on indirect support of students attending nonpublic schools through tuition vouchers, credits, tax benefits, exemptions or deductions, subsidies, grants or loans of public monies or property.
- 2. Allow students to use tuition vouchers to attend nonpublic schools in districts with a graduation rate under 2/3 in 1998-1999 and districts approving tuition vouchers through school board action or a public vote. Each voucher would be limited to 1/2 of state average perpupil public school revenue.
- 3. Require teacher testing on academic subjects in public schools and in nonpublic schools redeeming tuition vouchers.
- 4. Adjust minimum per-pupil funding from 1994-1995 to 2000-2001 level.

Should this proposal be adopted?

Yes or No

Arguments favoring Proposal 00-1:

- All students deserve a quality education. Vouchers will assist students who choose to seek that education outside of the public school system.
- Tuition vouchers empower parents who wish to send their children to private schools and cannot currently afford tuition.
- Testing teachers will improve education in public schools that choose to accept vouchers.
- The proposal guarantees that public school funding will not be reduced below the 2000-2001 level. Some who support Proposal 00-1:

Dr. James Dobson and Focus on the Family, Michigan Catholic Conference, Michigan Chamber of Commerce, Dr. William Bennett (former U.S. Secretary of Education), Senator John McCain (R-Arizona).

For more information in favor of Proposal 00-1, contact Kids First! Yes! at (517) 347-8753 or log on to: www.kidsfirstyes.com.

Arguments against Proposal 00-1:

- State funds could now be used to pay for private school tuition. Vouchers will reduce the funds available for local public schools, which could result in a tax increase.
- Private schools will still be able to pick and choose their students. They do not have to reveal how they spend public dollars, and are not subject to oversight by elected school boards.
- Taxpayers should not subsidize parents' decisions to send their children to private schools. Tax dollars should not be used to provide religious education.
- Vouchers will not cover the entire cost of private education. Some who oppose Proposal 00-1:

Michigan PTA, Detroit and various Michigan branches of the community. NAACP, Michigan League of Women Voters. Michigan Conference of the United Church of Christ, Detroit and West Michigan conferences of the United Methodist Church.

For more information opposing Proposal 00-1, contact ALL Kids First at (517) 327-2589 or log on to: www.allkidsfirst.org.

Proposal 00-2

A proposal to amend the Constitution to require a Super Majority vote (2/3) vote of the state Legislature to enact certain laws affecting local governments.

The proposed constitutional amendment would:

- 1. Require a super majority vote (2/3 vote) of the state Legislature to enact any law which addresses a matter which a county, city, township, village or municipal authority could otherwise address under its governing powers or which places a condition on unrestricted aid extended local governments by the State. (Currently, a simple majority vote of Legislature is required to enact such laws.)
- 2. Retroactively apply the super majority vote requirement to any such law enacted on or after March
- 3. Exempt from the super majority vote requirement any such law which can be applied at the option of local governments.

Should this proposal be adopted? Yes or No

Arguments favoring Proposal 00-2: · A state-mandated, one-size-fits-all approach does not address our unique needs and conditions.

• Every local unit of government knows its own needs and conditions. We must protect local governments' ability to regulate and nurture the health, safety and welfare of the to prepare this article.

- Local governments dispense services that directly affect people's everyday lives such as fire, police protection, water, sewer, and road maintenance. Decisions about how best to provide these services should be made locally.
- The most responsive government is that government found closest to the people.

For more information favoring Proposal 00-2, contact Let Local Votes Count at (517) 485-1314 or www.letlocalvotescount.com. Arguments against Proposal 00-2:

- State intervention is always the last resort, but sometimes it is absolutely necessary. Certain issues must be addressed and decided upon with a statewide standard because they affect the state as a whole.
- Local governments can infringe upon individual rights. When local governments enact regulations that burden families, the state Legislature must be able to correct the situation.
- · Overlapping and duplicating regulations imposed by hundreds of local units of government negatively impact the state's economic activity, business retention and job growth.

Michigan's 105th District Representative Ken Bradstreet says he strongly opposes this proposal. For more information in opposition of Proposal 00-2, contact Citizens for Common Sense Government at (517) 372-4400. No web site information was available at press time.

P.I.T. Stop for GMS parents

Asset building, asset building, asset building -- that's all I ever hear anymore! What is it? Is it really something I want to get involved with? Will it really help my child?

If you have been asking yourself these same questions, mark Monday night, November 6, on your calendar. Grayling Middle School is offering a spaghetti dinner and guest speakers on asset building for all their students and families. These speakers are students that have actually gone through the asset building program and they want to share their experiences with us

Our two assets for this week are very fitting:

5. Caring School Climate - The school needs to provide a caring, encouraging, environment.

6. Parent Involvement in Schooling - Parent(s) are actively involved in helping their child(ren) succeed in school.

Here's how to do a write-in vote. Simply open the flap on the "Secrecy Envelope" you are given at the poll. This is the envelope you use to conceal your ballot when you have completed it. Inside the flap are blanks for entering the names of candidates not on the ballot. Place your sticker, or write in Tim Coe, on the name portion and Sheriff on the office portion of the envelope flap. (Party can be left blank)

Your envelope looks like this:

MAKE SURE YOU PLACE YOUR STICKER OR WRITE ON THE ENVELOPE NOT ON THE BALLOT!

Your completed write in looks like this: NOTE: Your ballot cannot be spoiled by writing in a candidate or affixing a sticker even if you vote straight ticket. We need your help! Phone 344-6083 or 348-8653 To Volunteer

Please call us if you need a ride to the polls.

Doing this will ensure a vote for Tim Coe, and a vote for Integrity in the office of Sheriff.

ACLU Defends Sodomites

About a month ago we wrote about Barbara and Robert Curley suing the North American Man Boy Love Association following the brutal murder of their 10 year-old-son, Jeffrey. They claimed the NAMBL had influenced the sodomites who lured Jeffrey from his Cambridge neighborhood with the promise of a new bike, then smothered him with a gasoline-soaked rag when he resisted their sexual advances. They then stuffed him into a concrete-filled container and dumped it into a Maine river. Charles Jaynes can seek parole in 23 years and Salvatore Sicari is now serving a life sentence without parole.

The Curleys filed a lawsuit against the North American Man/Boy Love Association claiming its Website incited the molestation and murder of their son. Lawrence Frisoli, an attorney for the Curleys, said NAMBLA has stepped over the line from advocacy into actually participating in crimes. "The commission of crimes is not constitutionally protected by the First Amendment. They participate. That's the allegation of the lawsuit, that the organization is participating in the rape of children," he said. Frisoli claimed that NAMBLA assists its members in raping children by educating them on how to locate victims, how to gain their trust and how to avoid law enforcement so they won't get caught. The Massachusetts chapter of the ACLU said it will defend NAMBLA because the group's activities are protected under First Amendment guarantees of freedom of speech and freedom of association. "Under the First Amendment, there are no illegal ideas. Those who commit illegal acts can be punished for wrongful conduct, but the expression of even offensive ideas is protected by our Constitution," the ACLU stated. "The Constitution is for everybody. But there are some people who just don't understand that and never will," said Harvey Silverglate, an ACLU board member. The local ACLU board voted overwhelmingly to represent NAMBLA according to Silverglate. The same ACLU which will defend the 1st Amendment rights of pornographers, pedophiles and other sexual perverts, has publicly opposed the 1st Amendment rights of people of faith who publicly expose such wickedness. Those who mention God or the Bible to publicly attack the values of sodomites, pedophiles, adulterers, fornicators, etc., are branded as violating the separation of church and state.

"None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity." (Isa. 59:4)

"That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, the prince asketh, and the judge asketh for a reward; and the great man, he uttereth his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up. "(Mic. 7:3) "The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon the LORD, and say, Is not the LORD among us? none evil can come upon us." (Mic. 3:11) "Therefore the law is slacked, and judgment doth never go forth: for the wicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore wrong judgment proceedeth." (Hab. 1:4) The silencing of God, the Bible, and Christians in America is bringing about a shift in cultural values which is destroying the moral foundation of our nation,

Shadows

Have you ever been visiting in a strange house...maybe an old house with creaking doors and banging shutters? Perhaps you had occasion to stay the night. You wake up in the night with moonlight filtering in through the window. Suddenly, out of the corner of your eye, you see something move. Frightened, you switch on the lamp. There is nothing there...nothing but your imagination. With illumination, the shadows are is it not true that we are usually afraid of the unknown? Much of our life is spent discovering the unknown. Perhaps we need to carry a lamp

We can. Psalm 119:105 tells us, "Thy Word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path." With regular Bible reading, prayer, and weekly worship, those things that frighten us will diminish as our faith and knowledge in God's power and love increases. God will light the dark corners of our lives. We need not fear the shadows when He is there.

ALMANACK

Education Boards are the neglected races

HARDLY ANYONE pays attention to them now, but next year they will assume important jobs which often become lightning rods for publie concerns and controversy.

They're the invisible candidates running in the November 7 election to become members of the State Board of Education and the governing boards of University of Michigan, Michigan State University, and Wayne State University.

The winners will wrestle with questions involving affirmative action, charter schools. high profile jobs such as athletic director or football coach, tuition rates, and other matters. Their decisions can raise storms of public outrage or heaps of commendation.

Although the jobs are low-paid (no salary). they are high-prestige, especially in university and alumni circles.

And the winners will get good seats at football games, too.

CANDIDATES FOR these jobs live largely in anonymity. They are nominated by party conventions, or by petition in the case of some minor parties.

Their names appear at the end of the ballot. and the slippage in voter participation will be steep. Straight party votes are important to the education boards. It's likely the race between Al Gore and George W. Bush will decide who will run Michigan universities. It often happens that

Major party candidates will win these elections. The parties now have a 4-4 tie on the State Board of Education, and Democrats enjoy majorities on the three universities boards

Nominations are made at the end of each state convention. Frequently they become political payoffs, or rewards for faithful party service. Only a handful of the education candidates this year have solid real-world backgrounds in any thing outside government or politics

Appointment by the governor, with confirmation by the State Senate, and no more than five of the eight from either major party, might be a better way to select these boards. But this year, we're still stuck with this ill-fitting system to pick the leaders of Michigan's education struc-

Vote 'no' on Proposal 1

I am writing this letter to urge a NO vote on Proposal 1 on the November 7 general election ballot. Despite the claims of Proposal 1 supporters, the proposed voucher program will hurt most Michigan school children. It will take tax dollars from public schools and put them into private

The ads promoting Proposal 1 lead you to believe that it is all about een intended to divert your attention from the real purpose of Proposal 1. The Michigan Legislature mandated testing for all new teachers in 1986. The Legislature could easily mandate testing for all teachers. It does not require a constitutional amendment.

The impact of Proposal 1 is to remove the current prohibition in the Michigan Constitution against providing indirect state dollars for private and religious schools. This will open the door for voucher and tuition tax credits.

The voucher aspect of Proposal 1 initially affects only six districts but the supporters of Proposal 1 have said that their intent is for all 555 Michigan districts to become voucher districts. They can fund that ONLY by taking money from public schools or through a tax increase.

The supporters of Proposal 1 paint a picture of poor kids in failing schools denied the opportunity for quality education. The reality is that under Proposal 1, private schools can accept or reject any student for whatever reason they wish, children with special needs for example. Private schools will not be accountable for how they spend state dollars. This does not create the level playing field necessary for fair competition.

The ads promoting Proposal 1 say that it will save the state money. They teacher testing. That is a smoke cite a billion-dollar surplus. There is no large surplus. The money the ads reference is the money required to pay for the public school foundation grant increases already adopted by the Legislature for the 2001-2002 and 2002-2003 school years. The cost of Proposal I has been estimated at between $70 million and $500 million. That means that the Legislature will either have to reduce promised increases for public schools or raise

To summarize, Proposal 1 will not improve the quality of education in Michigan. It may reduce quality by taking dollars from public schools. It may require a tax increase. Proposal 1 does not guarantee a student's acceptance into a private school even if the student holds a youcher. It reduces accountability by putting more students into private schools that are not accountable to the public. Furge a NO vote Proposal 1.

First Coe impression was lasting

Before the election, I would like to say a few things about Tim Coc. We bought our business and moved to Frederic about five years ago. Before we even opened our business. a police car drove up while we were outside. It surprised us and we wondered if we were going to be harassed for something or if there were some accident with someone in our family. Low and behold, it was a county officer who had just stopped by to welcome us to the neighborhood.

He gave us his card and told us if we ever needed the police for anything to just give him a call. He chatted for a few minutes, wished us good luck in our business and told us he'd probably see us again when we opened. That was how we met Tim. It made us feel very good about moving to Crawford County and gave us a really good impression of the police force up here.

Since then, we have come to know Tim and his family, and we have a great deal of regard for him. He treats his wife, children and his mother with love and respect. He also respects the people he works with and he is conscientions about his work and about the rules of the election. When we first heard about his running for sheriff and asked him about it, he told us very plainly that he could not talk about it while on

The only time we have had to call the police was after midnight. I'm thankful they were on duty at that time. The officers responded within five minutes and stopped the disturbance. We have good officers and Tim is one of them.

He has a plan for a 24-hour patrol which I believe will work and I've always found that the leader is the one that causes poor or good morale in any organization. Tim is fairminded and well-liked. I'm sure he wouldn't punish anyone that voted against him in the election if he were sheriff.

Take the time to meet Tim and ask him any questions that will help you vote responsibly.

Thank you for reading this letter and I hope you give Tim a chance to speak for himself.

Sheriff's budget defined

We would like to take this opportunity to address some of the rumors, misinformation, and misunderstandings that are taking place in our community concerning the County's financial situation. First, the matter of the budgeted fund dollars that were "turned back" by the Sheriff's department. These would be the facts concerning the County's fiscal year numbers for 1999/2000 based on preliminary numbers:

1) The total amount of the Sheriff's Department revenue finished the money." year $158,883 more than last year Of that total, $150,265 was due to increased revenue from grants. Grant dollars can only be used for specific purposes and are not available for general Sheriff Department operations.

2) The actual Sheriff's Department revenue exceeded the budgeted amount by $10,594.

3) Although the Sheriff's Department expenditures for fiscal year 2000 were under budget, actual fiscal year 2000 expenses were $111,089 more than 1999.

4) The Sheriff's Department budget for 2000 was prepared anticipating a union contract settlement that did not happen in 2000. Actual expenses were $97,495 less than the originally adopted budget because anticipated wage increases and retroactive payments were not made during fiscal year 2000. However, these retroactive payments will have to be paid during 2001 when the contract is finally settled.

5) The Crawford County Board of Commissioners established Compensation Commission to set the salaries of all elected county officials. This was to be done with an objective and fair commission composed of respected members of the community. The only way an elected official can receive an increase is by the recommendation of this commission. The elected official can not refuse the pay increase.

6) The County is not financially healthy; however, we are on the right path of providing services up to the level of current revenues while being conservative in our estimates.

7) The County Board has taken a stance of not implementing programs that will need to be taken away in the future due to lack of funding.

8) The County simply does not have funding available to sustain a 24-hour road patrol program. 9) The County still has a number of financial concerns, including:

• The unfunded liability that awaits the county in the form of post retirement health care benefits.

• The delinquent tax revolving fund was used to balance the general fund for more than ten years. We can no longer live off of "borrowed

• The county has no more money available for capital projects, even though we need parking lot repairs, sidewalk repairs, an elevator, and miscellaneous remodeling projects. • The County's auditors recommend a 60-90 day reserve in fund balance. After last year's audit, the County had 32 days in reserve.

· We are currently in arbitration with two bargaining units within the County. When the contract is eventually settled, there will be a payment making the increases retroactive to an agreed upon date. Until that settlement though, we have no idea how much money will be needed for this payment.

10) Any money that is "left over" at the end of the fiscal year is returned to fund balance.

The numbers used here are based on preliminary data and may change after a complete internal audit process is completed. It is our sincere wish that everyone vote on Tuesday, November 7 for the candidate of his or her choice. We only wish to ensure everyone has the complete information so they can make an informed decision.

Voters: 'remember' Sheriff's efforts

To the editor.

So many times I have been tempted to write your paper and voice my opinion about the various political races, specifically our Sheriff's race.

It's unfortunate that many voters will base their votes on the dialogue. that has been bantered about during the past few weeks; it's too bad they don't remember.

Well, I do. I remember the many county functions you could always count on our Sheriff to attend and preside over. I remember a January catastrophe on 1.75 which, in any other county would have resulted in a sea of lawyers and press coverage with the most negative level. But, in our county, it was professionally and judiciously handled. I remember our D.A.R.E. program, which is perhaps the most aggressive in the state. I also remember the effort, leadership and dedication our sheriff and his staff have provided over the past eight years.

I also know exactly who I'll remember when it comes to electing our next sheriff.

Don't base your vote on gun control rhetoric

First of all, I want to begin talking about what I agree with in D. Vincent's letter last week, entitled "Gore would steal rights." I agree with his/her evaluation that we, as Americans, and the media, tend to have knee-jerk reactions to such things as Columbine.

We always seem to want to blame either the gun companies or the entertainment industry for what went wrong when really the parents and the teens themselves have complete and total responsibility in the matter. I also agree with his/her opinion that we can't legislate Utopia; if we could, it would have happened a long time ago and we would all live in a perfect world right now. That, unfortunately, is where I stop agreeing.

I find this kind of rhetoric not only insulting to my intelligence, but also very irresponsible. What D. Vincent is trying to do with this letter is play upon the average voter's paranoia and tell you that your guns are in danger when, in fact, that couldn't be farther from much a part of America as apple

I would never tell someone how to vote; I would just be happy if everyone did vote. What I will tell you, however, is to thoroughly educate yourself before you go into that booth. If you have listened to both of these candidates they are both for some kind of gun control. Governor Bush is less stringent than Vice President Gore's but nonetheless, Governor Bush supports trigger locks and portions of the Brady Bill, the same as Vice President Gore.

On the October 17th debate when Gore was asked about guns, he said he had no problem with hunters and sportsmen. In fact, being the "environmental candidate," I think Vice President Gore understands the true need for hunters to "thin out" the herd to create a more cohesive ecosystem. What he wanted to do was get the guns out of the hands of children and criminals.

I think if you ask anyone, including Vice President Gore, they would tell you that hunting is as pie. Guns have been a huge part of our culture since the beginning of this country and that will never

I think both candidates understand the seriousness and gravity of the gun issue and would never propose taking guns away from law abiding citizens: that would for one, be political suicide. All most politicians care about is job security. That's why they work so hard to get themselves elected. So, tell me this... why would any politician alienate a large chunk of the voting public (gun owners) by telling them that he would take all their guns away? It's ludicrous.

To hear gun advocacy groups tell it, from the moment Gore gets sworn in, his first duty as President is going to be to send government officials to your house to ask for your antique Winchester rifle. Listen to how silly that sounds. He is for sensible gun control; waiting periods and trigger locks, not for taking away your right to bear

I will say this for both candidates: I would be willing to bet the 2nd Amendment won't even be touched by either one of these candidates in their first four years. They are going to be too worried about way more pressing issues such as health care, education, Social Security, and the Middle East. These are the issues you should be focusing on when you're voting, not some paranoid thought that someone is going to come to vour door and ask for all your guns.

Your 2nd Amendment rights have been safe since 1787; your Social Security checks may not be safe in 2006. What's more pressing?

I'm sorry, D. Vincent. I respect a lot of your opinions, but I won't base my vote on such exaggerated propaganda that specifically tries to play on my paranoia. I think I'm going to vote with my head and not my darkest nursery rhyme fears about big, bad government officials coming into my house in the middle of the night for all my guns.

Proposal 1: more than just another voucher campaign

To the editor,

Please vote "no" in the upcoming election on the voucher proposal. You have heard pro-Proposal 1 campaign ads about teacher testing. school funding, and addressing school drop-out rates in only six of our 557 schools. These are the popular sound bites which have been used to sell Proposal 1. These are issues both "yes" and "no" voters can both agree are important educational issues; so is parent choice. But, future legislation dealing with these important issues do not require a constitutional amendment! Vouchers Vouchers do require a constitutional amendment. Vouchers have been proposed and defeated several times in Michigan's recent history due to lack of support.

Vouchers have time and time again been deemed unpopular and unwise by the citizens of this state -- yes, by parents who do not believe they are the best choice for their children.

This time the proponents, while using more modern political campaign tactics, have gambled they can raise the stakes beyond just vouchers. With the proven unpopularity of vouchers, proponents have wrapped the dead fish in hopefully more attractive and acceptable notions. With the sound bite arguments being used, it has taken a while for citizens to discover this proposition is indeed about vouchers.

There are two public funding issues included in the proposal. Vouchers are but only one of the issues. In addition, the proposal allows "credits, tax benefits, exemptions or deductions, subsidies, grants or loans of public monies or property to be also used for non-public educa-

These two public funding components of the proposal are the real issues which require a constitutional amendment. All the other issues can be addressed by legislation within our constitution. It is more than curious that the proponents try to tip-toe past these two constitutional components with diversionary issues and avoid using the term "vouchers" in their ads.

They do not explain the even more threatening elements of the constitutional amendment which would allow wealthy companies to defer paying state taxes, sending these public dollars instead for non-public school use.

Imagine a wealthy business owner setting up a private company school and not only have the state pay vouchers for attendance, but allow the company to avoid paying state taxes which would have supported the local public schools. If the constitutional amendment passes, these possibilities will be legal and the amendment irreversible.

Most Americans have been educated in their local public schools and have received a good education. Most of us have long ago learned in our civics and history classes about our strong heritage of separation of church and state, and understand why it is important.

As Americans, we support freedom of speech and religion. We understand people should have the right to worship as they choose, but the state should not provide government dollars to build or operate their church-

Trustee candidate's father makes endorsement

This letter should be considered an endorsement of Kevin Tingstad as Trustee of South Branch Township.

It is not often one has an opportunity in this life to write a letter such as this on behalf of one's own son. I wouldn't miss this chance for the

While it is true I am not a resident of South Branch Township and certainly know very little of the day to day life of the community, I know a good deal about Kevin Tingstad.

He and his wife, Leanne, have worked hard to raise their family of three children. While both work, they spend most of their spare time with those children; not in front of the television set. They have worked hard to introduce the family to the forest right outside their front door. While fishing is a great love of Kevin's, he also enjoys walking in the spring through fall, and skiing in the winter. While he was not born in the township, he has come to love and know it well.

I think Kevin Tingstad would, of course, make an excellent Trustee. He is level-headed, slow to anger. and very careful with money. He takes his time before he makes a decision. I would think he would act in the same way while on the people's business.

I also think he understands the needs of South Branch Township. This does not necessarily mean he would blindly follow the public opinion on every issue. There are times I believe when, if the issue is important enough, he would do what he thinks best, regardless of prevailing sentiment. I think he would be a true "trustee" and not just a blind follower of others.

Once again, I am proud to have this opportunity to endorse my son, Kevin Tingstad, for Trustee of South Branch Township.

Say 'no' to Proposal 2

There has been a lot of talk about Ballot Proposal 2, both for and against. I am strongly opposed to this proposal, and I would like to explain my opposition.

I will start with money, since this is the main reason the big cities are pushing this proposal so furiously. Financially, Prop. 2 is great for downstate cities, and bad for Northern Michigan. In the mid-1960s, Detroit had a population of over two million. Today, Detroit's population is less than one million. They have lost over 1/2 of their population (and over 1/2 their representation in the legislature).

Detroit, which now represents just 10% of the state's population, gets about 25% of the state revenue sharing dollars. There are a lot of us in the legislature who want a more fair, equitable distribution that would evenly disperse funding around the rest of the state, and the Detroit Mayor can see the handwriting on the wall. Detroit, its nearby neighbors, and other large cities would like to change the current law by passing Prop.2 so they may protect their pool of money with only 34% (1/3) of the legislature. When they controlled a majority in the legislature they didn't need Prop. 2.

Some supporters will say, "Prop. 2 isn't about funding. It's about the state legislature usurping local control." In my opinion, the engine behind the Prop. 2 train is in fact, money. The local control argument is a red herring -- a pretext by the big cities who run the Municipal League to gain support from up-start local officials who would otherwise never support the funding status quo. Most including the Michigan Association of Counties and the Michigan Townships Association. The following are the local control arguments and the legislative acts that have provoked Detroit Mayor Dennis Archer to push so hard for Prop. 2. The three actions most often cited in support of Prop. 2 are the "Right to Farm" bill, the residency issues, and the Detroit school restruc-

Consider the above examples. This past spring, we passed Sen. McManus' "Right to Farm" bill (SB-205). This was a bill that recognized the rights of individual farmers to continue to farm. Some local officials seem to regard farms as a nuisance, and one local ordinance even decreed that farm odors could not cross property lines. Who protects farmers from this kind of local con-

Another issue is the residency issue. Many cities, Detroit in particular, have forced employees to live inside the city limits and pay higher taxes, rather than allow the employees to live where they wish. In addition to the personal liberty issue, this is also a money issue. In the city of Detroit, the difference between having or not having a residency law amounts to about $2 million per year in the local tax base. While there were some justifications cited that seemed to have merit, I believe the issue of personal liberty outweighed the other issues, and I would prefer to err on the side of personal liberty.

Another issue that has intensified the drumbeat for Prop. 2 is the Detroit school reorganization. In this situation, the legislature disbanded up-state local officials oppose Prop. the local school board and instituted a new board that was answerable to the Detroit Mayor and the Governor.

> Why would we do that? Simply put, the children weren't being educated! When the Detroit graduating class of '99 entered the 9th grade, there were 11,000 students. In 1998. there were only 4,300 students left to take the 11th grade MEAP test. Of that 4,300, only 239 passed the MEAP test. That's 239 success stories out of 11,000 kids. All this after 20 years of similar results interspersed with countless new promises and improvement programs from the same board that never produced any better results.

> Who protects the children from this hopelessness? The parents can't afford to move. They can't afford a private school. They are trapped. How long do we let 10% of the state's children continue in a system where only 2% are learning, run by leaders with dubious integrity who cannot account for over $100 million in public funds? The Michigan Constitution makes the state legislature responsible for public education. It would be irresponsible for us to do nothing, as preceding legislatures have done. Yet when we acted, the drumbeat for "local control" seemed to drown out the cries for the rights of a whole generation of kids.

> Space prohibits me from expanding on the concept of majority rule, or the expensive logiam of litigation that would follow every bill passed through the legislature. Suffice it to say that Prop. 2 is great for Detroit politicians -- it's literally money in the bank. Prop. 2 is bad for Northern Michigan. Please vote NO on

Sheriff race: one clear choice

To the editor

As a longtime resident of Crawford County and a close follower of the local political scene, I feel obligated to voice my opinion of the upcoming election for the Sheriff of Crawford County.

Although a highly contested race. I believe that there is no decision to be made, the choice clearly has to be that of the current Sheriff, David Lovely.

Without fanfare, the Sheriff has quietly guided Crawford County through some very unsettled waters. Daily operations, budget restraints, legislative guidelines, union contracts, and many, many other factors that we'll probably never know, are all those things which the Sheriff has to plan for, take in stride, and at the same time, administer all of our safety and well being.

Well, our Sheriff has done all of that and when he needs me, I'll be Twenty traffic warnings were also issued.

TO THE VOTERS OF CRAWFORD COUNTY

I am supporting Sheriff Dave Lovely because:

- 1. Sheriff Lovely reinstated the position of detective in 1997, which I have always believed is absolutely essential for the reason that road officers, who may be the first on the scene of serious felony crimes simply do not have the specific training or time to conduct the follow-up investigation essential to solve and prepare the cases for effective prosecution.
- 2. Sheriff Dave Lovely has done exactly that for which he was twice elected, namely, be the man in charge, having done so, remarkably better with less financial resources than any of his predecessors with whom I have worked over the past 25 years.
- 3. If it hadn't been for Sheriff Lovely's outstanding efforts in securing over one million dollars in grants, not only would Crawford County not have the state of the art computers and link-ups between his department, my office and the Court but in all likelihood with the lack of outside funding, which pays for 6 deputy positions, we would have had only 7 certified deputies on staff over the past several years instead of the 13 now employed.

The truth is that David Lovely has been and will be the best sheriff for Crawford

Camp Grayling sponsors new Boy Scout troop

Grayling is growing to new heights. Boys from first through 12th grade have enjoyed scouting in Crawford County for many years. With the increase in scouting, there is a need for an additional Boy Scout Troop. A seasoned group of leaders have formed the new Boy Scout Troop #993 and is preparing and is preparing an exciting scouting adventure.

The new troop is being launched by a cadre of scouting enthusiasts. Mike Kane, who will be the Scoutmaster, has experienced scouting since his youth. He has spent many years as a Cub Scout Den Leader and taken his group to Boy Scouts. Assisting him will be Mr. Jim Pickell who is still working with Cub Scouts. Pickell's group of Cub Scouts will be moving into Boy Scouts in the near future.

Jennifer Kane is a Committee Chairperson for the troop and has also been active in Cub Scouts for many years. Angie Pickell is a Committee Member for Troop #993 and also brings many years of experience of scouting with her to the

New MRIs make anxious patients more comfortable

Magnetic resonance imag- ners-which surround the er inside diameter and stur- ventilation, intercom and ing (MRI) has been a blessing for both doctors and patients around the world. The machines present clear pictures of the inside of the body, with no radiation and no known side effects, giving doctors the tool they need to make more accurate diagnoses.

Now there's a type of MRI which may make the procedure possible for many more individuals.

Unfortunately, traditional MRI scanners are prohibitive for many patients. For up to 15 percent of the patient population, the scanentire body-bring on feelings of severe claustrophobia, making the process impossible to endure.

In addition, due to the design of traditional MRIs, many tall and overweight patients are not able to fit into the scanning area. Also, because of their size in relation to the machine, children are often unable to reach a parent's comforting hand if they are scared.

This specially designed MRI provides added levels of comfort and ease for patients. Features include:

• Wide, flared ends, a largdy table which can accommodate patients up to 550 pounds

 Shorter machine length, which makes it unnecessary for some patients to be completely surrounded by the scanner.

 Lightweight, comfortable coils which are strapped to the body. Since two coils can be used simultaneously, required scanning time may be reduced.

Accessible gantry (framework) through which children and anxious patients can be comforted.

• Music, variable lighting, hand-held call button have been added, which help create a relaxed setting.

 Video cameras, mounted in the scanner, monitor the patient throughout the study and are a real benefit for young patients and those who cannot communicate verbally.

Called the Gyroscan NT and manufactured Philips Medical Systems, this MRI is a patient-friendly system that can help more people receive a thorough medical diagnosis.

To All Voters:

I'm writing this letter as an open letter to the voters of Crawford County. I am the Chair of the Board of Road Commissioners for Crawford County. I strongly endorse the re-election of Mr. John Hartman of South Branch Township to the Road Board. He has done an outstanding job during his tenure on the Board and I would like to see him continue to serve the people of Crawford County.

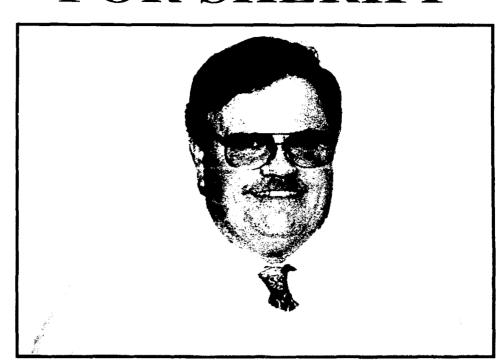

In the past few years there has been a lot of controversy involving the Road Commission. In the last nine months since the new Road Board was seated all the negative situations have been resolved. Three weeks after Mr. Hartman was appointed to the Road Board we had a labor contract in place with the union members. Soon there after we settled the remaining lawsuit that was pending against the Road Board. We are now concentrating on the business of repairing roads.

We don't have enough time nor money to do all the needed repairs to the roads of Crawford County. But look around and see that we have done some significant road and bridge repair projects this summer. With the continued common sense and hard work of the Road Board, management, and the work crews we will accomplish what we can. Mr. John Hartman is an important part of the Road Board. He should be re-elected so that we can continue to improve the Crawford County Road Commission.

Sincerely, Tom Perry Crawford County Road Commission October 23, 2000

TIM COE FOR SHERIFF

Everybody's Favorite!

The friendly, hardworking Deputy is applying to you for the job of Sheriff and asking for your support of his write-in campaign.

Here are Tim Coe's priorities and promises as your Sheriff.

Tim Coe WILL:

- 1) Provide 24 hour road patrol using the plan presented to community groups and endorsed by retired Sheriff Harold Hatfield and retired Grayling Police Chief Peter Stephan. The present guarantee of no Sheriff's Department coverage from midnight to 7 a.m. is unacceptable.
- 2) Never accept a pay raise while the county is without adequate police protection.
- 3) Restore the credibility and respect of the Crawford County Sheriff's Department with all state, county, township and city agencies that are dealt with.
- 4) Support binding arbitration for all Corrections Officers.
- 5) Respond to citizens concerns timely, appropriately and responsibly.
- 6) Improve communication between all department personnel so cooperation and teamwork will be restored.
- 7) Support and continue with grant programs for DARE, School Liaison and Probate Court. Grant information and requirements will be shared with the officers responsible for administering these programs.
- 8) Assure Crawford County residents that all new grant monies will be used as intended. Grants providing funds for a new officer WILL be used for a new officer and will NEVER be used to supplant county funds.
- 9) Have a TRUE open door policy. Tim Coe's door WILL be open and he WILL listen to you.
- 10) Be a full time Sheriff. Tim Coe pledges that he and his undersheriff will be full time professional law enforcement officers with no moonlight jobs.
- 11) Work for YOU! He will be the Sheriff of ALL Crawford County residents. YOU WILL BE PROUD OF TIM COE!

Michigan Supreme Court Justices:

Have you been unhappy over the past decades with the rulings of the higher courts and greater emphasis placed upon the rights of the accused and less on the victims? Justices Taylor, Markman and Young felt just as disgusted and powerless to do anything about this situation until being appointed to the State Supreme Court. In a relatively short time they have begun to turn things around as they are now interpreting the law instead of making laws, or establishing social policies. They must be making an impact as the democrats and the trial lawyers association is spending massive amounts of money in order to remove them from the court and replace them with the liberals with whom they could once again have their way.

Now that the census is completed, very soon work will begin to examine where any population changes may have taken place and the district boundaries may have to be moved in order to keep and even balance in the districts of our various elected officials. The State Supreme Court has the final say as to whether that was accomplished in a fair and equitable manner.

People who work with the law and the end result of the courts decisions every day are supporting Justices Taylor, Markman and Young. Some of these supporters would be the Sheriffs, approximately 75% of the county prosecutors [both republican and democrat], the Police Officers Association of Michigan, the Michigan Fraternal Order of Police, and the National Review.

If we would like to see the scales of justice come back into balance and the victims have an equal voice in the court, the loopholes removed and true justice return to the courts then we need to vote for Justice. These will be the only candidates that will have the word justice before their name, be sure to vote for justice, Justice Cliff Taylor, Justice Stephen Markman, and Justice Robert P. Young Jr.

Every year, the members of the lent her voice to the group on the Grayling Promotional Association (GPA) choose their candidates for the "Woman of the Year." By an overwhelming majority of votes, this year's honors went to Gloria Kraus.

Kraus has been a member of GPA since its early beginnings, and in her words -- "working with this wonderful bunch of weirdos has been a terrific experience for me."

One of her favorite stories about GPA was her "initiation by fire" in trying to get a cookbook produced. "We needed to raise money," she said, "and what better way than to get out a local cookbook. I told a group I needed 200 recipes and I'd do the rest. They came through the next week, alright -- they brought me 10! I begged for more, and sure enough, the following week, and had 10 more!"

Deb Zelek, president of GPA, said Gloria's cookbook is now so famous "it's on the library's shelves so all can improve their culinary skills."

She went on to say, "Gloria has

Two games, two great finishes

Varsity girls basketball team wins two matches with fourth quarter comebacks

► Vikings defeat Tawas Braves, Gaylord Blue Devils in Grayling

by Caleb Casey Staff Writer

The GHS varsity girls basketball team engineered fourth quarter comebacks in both matches last week, defeating Tawas 54-51 on Tuesday, and beating Gaylord 50-43 on Thursday.

On Tuesday, the Vikings got off to a rough start, but came through in the clutch with some big shots and crucial free throws.

The Vikings scored the first points of the game on a three-pointer by Emily Fox. Tawas quickly tied the game with a three-point play at the other end, then scored 10 more points for a 13-point unanswered streak. Grayling had trouble with Tawas' full court press, and turnovers cost the Vikings several offensive chances. Grayling scored just four more points in the first quarter: a bucket inside by Lori Hinkle on an assist by Kristy Hulbert, and a lay-up by Carrie Cadeau set up by a pass from Fox. The Braves led 14-7 after one period.

Tawas scored the first points of the second quarter on two free throws on a one and one opportunity. Grayling then scored six unanswered points on an inside shot by Michelle Elsner, a putback by Hulbert, and a jumper by Jamie Dent to pull GHS within three, 16-13.

The Braves fought back, extending their lead back to seven, 22-15.

With 2:35 left in the half, Hulbert hit a jumper to move GHS within five. Cadeau hit a triple towards the end of the half to cut the Tawas lead to two. The Braves led by three at the half, 23-20.

The Vikings could not carry over their momentum to the third quarter, and did not have a good eight minutes. Grayling scored only twice in the period, both on shots by Hinkle. Tawas put in nine points to take a 32-24 lead into the fourth quarter.

Grayling went to work right away. Two free throws by Hinkle and a lay-up by Hulbert on a nice drive pulled Grayling within four points, 32-28.

At the 5:30 mark, Tawas hit a triple to go back up by seven, then scored a basket inside and a jumper to take an 11-point lead,

Junior varsity squad defeats Braves, Gaylord Blue Devils

JV team dominates Tawas

► Vikings move to 13-3 with victories over Gaylord Blue Devils, Tawas Braves

by Caleb Casey Staff Writer

The GHS junior varsity girls basketball team won both of its games last week, defeating the Tawas Braves by a large margin on Tuesday, and finishing 12 ahead of Gaylord on Thursday. Both matches were played in Grayling.

On Tuesday, the Vikings were just too much for the visiting Braves of Tawas. With tenacious defense, hustle, and a solid offense, the Viking opened up a 17-2 lead by the end of the first quarter. Grayling did a good job working the ball around, and getting good shots inside.

Tawas didn't score a field goal in the entire first period.

The Vikings got first quarter points from a jump shot by Tracy Parkinson, shots inside by Britni Baker and Lori Ellis, a shot in the paint by Ashley Bancroft assisted by Danielle Beckwith, a triple by Ellis, a drive by Beckwith, and two free throws by Parkinson.

Tawas put in 13 points in the second period, but the Vikings dumped in 23 to build their lead up to 25 by halftime, 40-15.

Freshmen girls beat Pinconning

► Vikings continue to play well at home with 40-32 win over Pinny Spartans

by Caleb Casey Staff Writer

Grayling's freshmen girls basketball team posted a 40-32 win over the visiting Spartans of Pinconning last Monday, the team's third straight victory at home.

The Vikings scored the first basket of the game on a jumper by Briea Frisbie. At the 5:00 mark, Laura Gorski converted a lay-up to give GHS a 4-0 lead. Pinconning scored two buckets, then Ashley Hawley scored a jump shot to give Grayling a 6-4 lead.

Pinny hit the last two baskets of the first quarter to lead 8-6 going into the second period.

The Spartans opened the second quarter with a bucket to take a 10-6 lead. Grayling scored the next five points on a fast break lay-up by Amanda Felver, a free throw by Jessica Stewart, and a put-back by Gorski to take an 11-10 lead.

Pinny scored a basket, then the Vikings hit eight unanswered points to round out the half. The run included a drive by Frisbie, jumpers by Hawley and Felver, and a fast break lay-up by Frisbie.

The Vikings led 19-12 at half-time, and had the momentum.

► Soccer team falls to a strong Elk Rapids squad 7-1 in District tournament

The GHS varsity boys soccer team ended a great season last Monday with a loss to Elk Rapids in the District tournament.

The Elks were able to dominate the game with great speed and game experience. Grayling got on the board first when Kyle Langseth was awarded a penalty kick early in the first half, after being taken down in the penalty area.

Ben Crawford controls the ball for the Vikings.

Elk Rapids came back with strong offensive pressure, and scored four times before halftime. "Elk Rapids simply had a lot of speed and confidence that we strug-

The Elks scored three more times in the second half to win the game 7-1 and advance in the District.

Dan Mead, Josh Petrie, Derek Gregorich, and Ben Crawford worked hard on defense to keep up with the Elk Rapids attack. James Kenney, Art Graube, Justin Fenn, Eric Hunter, and Brandon Pratt moved the ball up through a very active Elk Rapids midfield. The Elks were able to take advantage of the slightest errors and send the ball back up field for a quick counterat-

IF THE COMMITTEE HAD EVER TRIED TO ASCERTAIN THE TRUTH, IT WOULD HAVE FOUND:

A) That at the time the grant became available, a Deputy was coming off a medical leave and was to be LAID OFF, as the County had cut back funding of the position.

B) That by Union Contract, I COULD NOT hire a non seniority (new) and leave a seniority officer on layoff, as through a series of bumps, the (new) officer would have been out on the street.

C) That the NON funded position was reinstated by the COPS Grant and those funds were used to hire that certified officer whose position was NOT funded by the County at the time of the Grant, as he would have been laid off.

If you had taken the time to read the Grant, you would know that COPS funds cannot be used to SUPPLANT or REPLACE local funding and in fact, THEY WERE NOT SO USED.

A phone conference with the COPS Grant Program Assistant General Counsel, Mrs. Fieri-Fetrow assured the County that as long as the COPS funds were used to INCREASE funding resulting in an ADDITION, (hence the word NEW) not a replacement, to the normal planned hiring by the Sheriff's Department, the County would be in compliance with the non supplanting requirement.

Finally, as to your "$50,000.00" question, COPS funds, ($27,000.00) were deposited directly into the "Grayling Township officer" designated portion of the General Fund, which is also where the Grayling Township Funds, ($25,000.00) were deposited which, absolutely, is not under the control of the Sheriff. THE COMMITTEE'S RECKLESS ALLEGATIONS AND IRRESPONSIBLE INNUENDO ARE CLEARLY DEAD WRONG AND NOTHING MORE THAN VICIOUS POLITICAL GARBAGE AS THE MONEY HAS BEEN USED LEGALLY BY THE COUNTY IN FULL COMPLIANCE WITH THE GRANT as was already fully explained to Grayling Township Supervisor Terry Wright on October 18, 2000 shortly after the issue was first raised.

P.S. If it were not for the COPS Grant and the initiative of Grayling Township, there would not be an officer on patrol 40 hours a week in our largest township, freeing up other officers to patrol the rest of the county. Think about it, the COPS Grant helps Grayling Township and the other 5 townships.

Just like in Tuesday's game, the Vikings opened with a three-pointer by Fox. A jumper by Dent put Grayling up 5-0, then a jump shot by Hinkle with 3:02 left in the first period put the Vikings up 7-0.

The Vikings rebounded well to start the game, and their defense was solid. The Blue Devils didn't score a basket for the first six minutes of the match. With a three-point play by Dent towards the end of the period, Grayling led 10-4 after eight minutes.

Gaylord quickly scored the first three buckets of the second quarter to tie the game at 10-10. A Gaylord triple at the 6:00 mark gave the Devils a 13-11 lead.

A jumper by Hulbert and a shot inside by Hinkle set up by a pass from Hulbert gave Grayling a 15-13 lead. Gaylord scored a three-pointer and four of four from the free throw line to take a 20-15 lead.

Grayling High School's cheerleading teams again put on a four-day clinic for GES and AuSable Primary girls this year, teaching the young students a variety of moves and cheers. All it was meant to be.

What is love, really? Is it romance...or being with people you like? Is it giving and receiving nice things? Is it about hard work, or sacrifice, or putting the needs of others first? Well, love can be about all those things. But there is one perfect love, God's love...and it can strengthen all others.

We're your neighbors, the people of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod. And we want you to know that, with Jesus Christ, love really can be all it was meant

Protect Northern Michigan Values Re-Elect

Ken Bradstreet

Republican 105th House District

For Education - Ken supported major funding increases for public schools, increasing the per child grant to $6,700 by 2003. "We need strong schools, both public and private, if we are to thrive in a competitive worldwide economy."

For Jobs and Business - Ken was one of only two legislators north of Midland to earn a perfect 100% rating by both the Small Business Association of Michigan (SBAM), and the National Federation of Independent Businesses (NFIB). Endorsed by both groups. "Small businesses account for far more than 1/2 of all Northern Michigan jobs. For good jobs, we need healthy small businesses."

For Families - Ken introduced legislation that would double the personal income tax exemption. "There's something wrong with a system that requires a young family of four earning just over $12,000 to be liable for income taxes. My bill would allow that family to earn $24,000 before they would pay any state income tax."

Partial List of Endorsements - Michigan Right to Life; National Rifle Association; Michigan Coalition of Responsible Gun Owners; Michigan Farm Bureau; Police Officers Association of Michigan; Fraternal Order of Police; Citizens for Traditional Values.

CRAWFORD COUNTY RESIDENTS

The Committee to elect Coe for Sheriff would like you to know how Sheriff Lovely has behaved since learning of Tim's candidacy in the primary.

These events are listed in the order in which they occurred. Please judge for yourself the management style of Sheriff Lovely.

- 1) Tim Coe advises Sheriff Lovely that he will be running against him for the office of Sheriff in the August primary election.
- 2) Sheriff Lovely advises Tim that he is not allowed to campaign in uniform. This is a law that the Sheriff chose to enforce on Tim, although the Sheriff campaigned in his uniform prior to his first election in 1992.
- 3) Sheriff Lovely fires Tim as the Grayling Township Officer, for disappointing records/statistics.
- 4) Sheriff Lovely stated, in this newspaper, that he gave Tim a copy of the COPS grant covering this position. The fact is that Tim requested a copy of the grant, but it was never received, nor were any other instructions ever given as to what the grant required.
- 5) Grayling Township shows its outrage at Tim's firing by presenting him with a "Resolution of Honor" for a job well done. Supervisor, Terry Wright, states that Tim's performance was exemplary, and that he had fulfilled all the requirements of the Township contract with the Sheriff's Department.
- 6) Tim's supporters ask him to let the voters know what Sheriff Lovely did to him, but he refuses saying he wants to run on the basis of his qualifications only. All advertising and promotional material is directed toward the promotion of his career and his distinguished qualifications for the position of Sheriff.
- 7) A copy of the COPS grant is requested, in writing, by Grayling Township Supervisor, Terry Wright, but the request is ignored. Other verbal requests also are ignored.
- 8) The Sheriff finally provides a copy of the grant, only after Terry Wright requests it through the Michigan Freedom of Information Act.
- 9) Some of Tim's fellow deputies (with Coe bumper stickers) are warned by several command officers that they should show the Sheriff more support.
- 10) Deputy David Vogel, of the Roscommon County Sheriff's Department suggest to his friends how 24 hour road patrol could be accomplished in Crawford County. Sheriff Lovely obtains a copy of the e-mail suggestion and writes Deputy Vogel a letter stating that "Should you require assistance, in this county, you will require prior approval from either one of my command officers or me. I will also require an explanation for our assistance and your reason for the need to be in my jurisdiction."
- 11) Sheriff Lovely wins the election by 300 votes. Tim's supporters ask him if he would consider a write-in campaign, but Tim's answer is No, I don't want to put my family through another campaign."
- 12) Deputy Conrad Niederhouse is overheard in a local business, to make mention of the fact that someone was investigating the terms of the COPS Grant due to an allegation of the misuse of federal funds.
 - 13) Sheriff Lovely begins an investigation of Deputy Niederhouse!
 - 14) Tim Coe congratulates Sheriff Lovely on his primary election win.
 - 15) Sheriff Lovely says he will accept Tim's resignation. Tim refuses to resign.
- 16) Tim's supporters again ask him to run a write-in campaign. Again, Tim says No."
- 17) Sheriff Lovely transfers Tim to the position of Corrections Officer in the jail, but states in writing. "This re-assignment is not disciplinary nor will it affect your current pay status."
- 18) Sheriff Lovely presents Tim with a second letter, several days later, saying the transfer was due to the way Tim ran his losing campaign, with a list of items he charged against Tim and his supporters. And in a letter in this paper last week, Detective Richard Meyer says Tim's transfer to Corrections is to prevent him from campaigning on duty! The story changes with every telling! Incidentally, any allegation of Tim Coe campaigning while on duty is a total fabrication.
- 19) Deputy Tim Coe believes that Sheriff Lovely's retaliatory behavior has now shown him to be totally insecure as Sheriff.
- 20) Deputy Tim Coe is again asked to run a write-in campaign, and this time says "Yes." He has already lost his job. He is a police officer, not a corrections officer.
- 21) At the insistence of his supporters, Deputy Coe now agrees to let the public know of Sheriff Lovely's retaliatory behavior.

If elected, Myers said he would "continue working with the township officers, board, and fire and ambulance departments to help provide our people with the best township services possible. Also, (I would continue) working with county officials towards making our roads better and refuse (service) less costly through compacting and recycling."

"I have enjoyed the learning truck soon, looking at full/part time experiences of our local and county fire station manning if the township governments, and working with the people to try to make South Branch Township and Crawford County a Lewis and her husband have five better place to live," Myers said.

On a county level, Myers noted that "one problem is that each township has a separate refuse contract that I feel could be more costeffective if the City of Grayling and all Crawford's townships got together towards one contract that would benefit all. This also includes a workable recycling program that began county-wide on June 1 of this year."

Myers has served on credit union boards for several years; he has been a church elder and a youth leader; and he has worked with the Boy Scouts.

Myers has taken several administration classes through the U.S. Postal Service and North Central Area Credit Union, and he has been Townships Association.

Myers enjoys flying, being in the outdoors (especially fishing, hunting and trapping), and he is an avid reader. Just prior to his appointment to the supervisor position, Myers wrote a book about the "Historical Highlights of The Village of Roscommon."

Myers and his wife Joon have four adult children.

Tom Kozlowski, who works in construction, currently serves on the Crawford County Planning Commission. He has made an effort to attend every South Branch Township Board meeting for the past seven years, he said.

Kozlowski is running for South Branch Supervisor "because a public office would allow me the opportunity to take an active part in the growth of a township that people can be proud of," he said.

"Crawford County must develop and support a plan which will capitalize on the one major resource which it has within its boundaries: public land," said Kozlowski.

If elected, Kozlowski hopes "to effectively guide the township in both social and economic growth and development," he said.

Meet the Candidates: Beaver Creek Township

township board positions.

Township clerk Sharon K. Hartman, a Republican, is running unopposed, and treasurer Vivian Balmes, a Republican, is also unchallenged. Following the August primary election, three candidates remain in the race for two trustee positions: Kathleen L. Mobarak, Republican; Gary Summers, Democrat; and Linda Little, Republican.

In the race for township Supervisor, incumbent Lee Riley, a Republican, will face independents Ronald H. Larson and Lee J. Regier.

(Questionnaires were mailed to each of the supervisor candidates. Candidates were also asked to either provide a photo, or have one taken by The Avalanche. Responses to the questionnaires were used as the basis for the following candidate profiles.)

Beaver Creek Township Supervisor candidates

Lee Riley Republican

Lee Riley, a retired school bus driver, is the current Beaver Creek Township Supervisor and a Level 2 Certified Assessor.

Riley is one of the original Beaver Creek Township Fire Department members, serving from 1983 to 1989. He was elected to the Crawford County Board of Commissioners in 1991, and served as Chairman of the Board during the second year of his term.

He has been a board member of the Crawford County Transportation Authority since 1991, and was elected township supervisor in 1996. Riley is also a current member of the Crawford County Recycling Committee and the Beaver Creek Planning Commission.

Riley is running for re-election because, "first of all, I enjoy what I am doing. I enjoy having a chance to participate in the decisions made by our local units of government and I want very much to be involved in the planning for our community's future," he said.

"I have tried to serve my township with honesty and understanding through the years," Riley said. "I feel my energy and leadership skills have had a positive effect in the progress of the township. Having owned a business in the township for 12 years, I understand the needs of the community as well as the problems facing businesses."

"I have been involved for the

On November 7, Beaver Creek past 18-plus years in my township Township voters will have the and county and have had a hand in opportunity to cast ballots for progress made. I have a strong desire to continue to serve my community," Riley said.

"I would like to see our community grow," said Riley. "I want to be involved in the planning that will bring new jobs and expanded shopping opportunities to our entire area. Affordable housing for people of all means is an important issue. I would like to put the township in the position to provide the services that our residents require. One area that I consider a priority will be to make improvements to the park."

Riley and his wife Elaine have two children and five grandchildren. He enjoys spending time with his family and friends, traveling, working on his yard, and he is a "dedicated Central Michigan University football fan."

Ronald H. Larson Independent

Ronald H. Larson is a retired transportation engineer.

If elected township supervisor, Larson hopes to "keep our tax dollars down, get more people at the meetings, build up the Beaver Creek general fund with a big surplus, keep track of the general fund and make sure tax dollars are spent on Beaver Creek, and see more growth and jobs."

Larson is in favor of abandoning the township's $7.50/10 garbage bags trash system and would like to have "longer hours radioactive materials in our landat the transfer site, like four days a fill." week and seven hours a day, and more bulk pick-up, like once a month. Then people would not be throwing tires and other items in our woods," he said.

Larson would like to have the township office open at night three days per week from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. "for people who work and cannot get to the township office by 2 p.m."

"We need more good-paying jobs and more growth in industry and retail," said Larson. "The township is wasting tax dollars on a full-time fire department and chief, and there are no firemen there on weekends. How can it be full-time if there aren't firemen there 24 hours a day, seven days a week? We need a volunteer fire department. We could save a lot of money if we had volunteers."

"More people have to come to meetings to get things done and speak out," said Larson. "Beaver Creek is at a standstill. We need more jobs, more industrial sites and more retail jobs.'

Larson and his wife of 25 years, who passed away over four years ago, have four children and nine grandchildren.

He enjoys fishing, boating, bowling, working outside, and walks in the woods.

Lee J. Regier Independent

Lee J. Regier is a sales representative for the Thee Sign Shop of Roscommon.

"I am interested in making a difference in the township," said Regier, "and helping the people of Beaver Creek Township. Not hiding the issues from the people, but being straight forward, and letting the people in the township know what is happening."

"I look forward to working with the people and for the people, if I should be elected. I do not have selfish motives," said Regier. "I am not in it for the money. I want to help make a difference."

If elected, Regier plans "to see where we may be able to curb some spending within the township, and to help Beaver Creek to grow in a positive way," he said.

"We have poor job opportunities within the county for our young people," Regier said. "Our kids grow up and move away -- they have no job opportunities to keep them."

"There is a question about spot zoning, which has industries next to homes, a mix. We should have each kept separate," said Regier. 'We don't need permits issued to cogeneration plants to burn tires in our county. We also don't need our environment ruined by burying

"We do have some issues that need to be addressed within the township. One is the amount spent for our Fire Department. We spend $200,000 annually on less than 100 runs per year at an average cost of about $2,000 per run," Regier said. "Yes, we need fire protection, but that seems like a lot of money to me per run. We do need to find the best use of our township money.'

"We need equality in hiring practices," Regier continued. "I don't care whether that person is male or female, just as long as they have the qualifications to do the job."

"If I am elected, I will work for the people of Beaver Creek Township," said Regier. "I will bring with me Christian morals and use them in helping me make decisions. I will work with the elected board to help make the right decisions for our township."

Regier and his wife of 32 years, Carol, have three sons and three grandchildren.

Regier is a military collector, he enjoys metal detecting in his spare time, and he teaches Sunday

Meet the Candidates: Road Commission

On November 7, county voters will have the opportunity to cast ballots for one Crawford County Road Commission Board position.

In the race for Road Commission Board, Republican John H. Hartman, the incumbent, will face former Road Commissioner Robert E. Nelson, a Democrat.

(Questionnaires were mailed to each of the following candidates. Candidates were also asked to either provide a photo, or have one taken by The Avalanche. Responses to the questionnaires were used as the basis for the following candidate profiles.)

Crawford County Road Commission Board candidates

John H. Hartman (I) Republican

John H. Hartman, the owner and operator of S & J Excavating Inc., currently serves on the Crawford County Road Commission Board.

His previous government experience includes serving as a trustee for the Village of Roscommon for three years and serving as the Roscommon Council's Mayor for three years.

Hartman's goal, if elected, is to try to keep the Road Commission operating in the smooth manner in which it currently does, and also, to take into consideration the quality of the roads.

"We need to keep roads and bridges safe for the driving public," said Hartman.

Hartman has been in the excavating business for the last 20 years and has knowledge of construction equipment, as well as the ability to work with employees and the public, he said.

Hartman and his wife Susan have two children and two grandchildren.

He enjoys collecting cars and attending car shows in the summer.

Meet the Candidates: Frederic Township

On November 7, Frederic Township voters will have the opportunity to cast ballots for township board positions and constable.

Republican Ronald D. Lewis defeated incumbent supervisor Brian Hulbert, also a Republican, in the August primary and is now unopposed on the November ballot. Incumbent clerk Nancy Bindschatel and incumbent treasurer Sandra Barber, both Democrats, are running unchallenged.

Four township residents are vying for two trustee positions: Democrats Ernest Barber and William T. Johnson, and Republicans Rose Ann Owens and Darlene Wildfong.

In the race for township constable, Republican Michael J. Girard will face Aaron Blaine, an independent.

(Questionnaires were mailed to each of the constable candidates. Candidates were also asked to either provide a photo, or have one taken by The Avalanche. Responses to the questionnaires were used as the basis for the following candidate profiles.)

Aaron Blaine, an automotive technician for Riker Automotive, is also a Frederic Township volunteer fire fighter and medical first responder.

"Community pride is my reason for running for constable," said Blaine. "I am proud to be a part of this community, and feel I can serve this community well."

"Frederic is rich in history and community pride. Frederic is like a large family, a family with values. Let's not forget the children of today are Frederic's future. Let's recapture those family values of the past,"

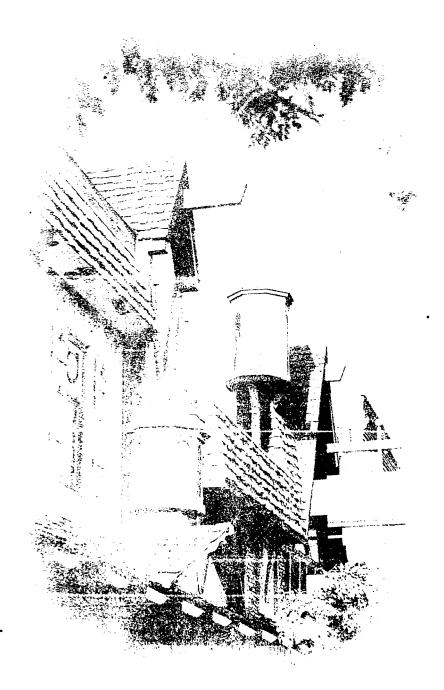

Aaron Blaine Independent

Blaine said. "Help watch out for your neighbors, your neighbors' children, and your neighbors' homes."

"If elected constable, I would like to help organize neighborhood watches, enforce curfew for our young ones, and help watch out for the citizens of Frederic," Blaine said. "Curfew, I feel is a big issue in Frederic. We have to keep our children out of harm's way, and keep our children home for the remainder of the night hours because after curfew there is little to no patrol in those hours of the morning."

"No matter what the turn-out of the election, I would like to remind Frederic Township residents that we are a family, and we do care about our neighbors, our neighbors' children, and what happens to them. And these values are the key to our future."

"Good Health Starts Here."

For 50 years the people of North Central Michigan have depended on Otsego Memorial Hospital to help them stay healthy. Through the years we have grown. We have added services. We have invested in new equipment. We have remodeled our facilities. We have recruited talented, well trained health care professionals to the area. From routine care to sophisticated in-patient treatments and procedures, OMH has both the resources and expertise. There's no need to look further for a top health care organization. In fact, OMH has been named one of the Top 100 Hospitals in the country. When it comes to good health, it all starts right here.
